

6.4 Public Welfare Activities

3

Sponsors biodiversity, health, and cultural social welfare initiatives, reducing carbon emissions by 18,841 kilograms of CO₂e.

Since the establishment of the Sustainability Development Center, PharmaEssentia has responded to the United Nations SDG3 initiative through internal educational training and external social participation. In 2023, we contributed to society by sponsoring funds and investing human resources. The following project sponsorship details:

1

• Sponsorship of the International Jane Goodall Institute for Biodiversity Advocacy Activities

Environmental awareness starts young, beginning with elementary school students on campus, striving to inspire their passion for diverse plant conservation education. The goal is to cultivate like-minded young green leaders, encouraging everyone to take action from a young age to care for the Earth and improve the environment. In 2023, PharmaEssentia sponsored the Jane Goodall Institute with NT$100,000, and staff from the Sustainability Development Center actually visited to help advocate for biodiversity. The activity involved four elementary schools, impacting over 152 students and teachers.

This activity not only creates a positive corporate image of the company, but also echoes the goals of the United Nations SDGs 3, 4, 13 and 15, as well as the WHO One Health Initiative and the Convention on Biological Diversity, such as promoting the conservation of plant diversity to ensure sustainable medical resources and ecosystems, educating people about the importance of plant diversity to promote sustainable use of natural resources, and protecting plant diversity to help maintain ecological balance and prevent ecosystem degradation, while promoting soil conservation and water management.

• Sponsor the OneSong Orchestra New Year Charity Concert for 5 consecutive years to support the promotion of local culture

In order to support enterprises to promote the development of local culture and practice the Code of Practice for Corporate Sustainable Development of Listed and OTC Companies, PharmaEssentia has sponsored the OneSong Orchestra New Year Concert for 5 consecutive years. By supporting the development of culture and arts, it can not only cultivate employees' personal body and mind, combine work and rest, balance life and workplace relationships, but also promote a new ecology of integration and common good, and shape the positive image of the company. In 2023, we sponsored about NT$1 million for this philanthropic activity and invited the company's employees participating in the planning of the marketing department, with a total of 26 participants.

Music is an integral component of the cultural sector. Hosting music concerts and cultural events not only draws tourists and audiences but also generates economic value and job prospects, while fostering urban economic growth and cultural and social progress. Consequently, this philanthropic endeavor is in alignment with the objectives of both United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) 8 and 11.

• Continuing to sponsor the Digital Humanitarian Association's Rural Elderly Health Promotion Charity Events

Adhering to our entrepreneurial mission and commitment to access to healthcare, we prioritize patients and strive to transform innovative science into medical solutions that bring shared value to patients, aiming to promote human health and well-being. We have chosen to adopt telemedicine to support regions with insufficient medical service capacity, particularly focusing on the elderly population in rural areas, which aligns with our MPN -PV service group. This initiative aims to facilitate patients' timely and equitable access to healthcare resources.

Through the Rural Telehealth Elderly Health Promotion Charity Project proposed by the Wacare team of the Digital Humanitarian Association, in the remote tribal communities of Taitung County, Taiwan, which are most lacking in medical resources, we provide diversified medical resource services such as telemedicine, health promotion applications, online LIVE courses, and consultations with medical experts through digital technology. This initiative aims to provide more comprehensive support and timely care to the elderly vulnerable groups in rural areas. In 2023, a total of NT$450,000 was sponsored, and staff from the Sustainable Development Center visited the sponsored locations, reaching over 60 individuals. The project estimates a Social Return on Investment (SROI) of 5.438 for the current year.

The collage features seven photographs documenting community activities:

- Top Left: A large group of elderly residents and staff posing for a photo in a well-lit room with large windows. A speech bubble above them reads "太麻里 大王據點" (Tamsui, King's Base).
- Top Center: Two elderly women standing outdoors, smiling for the camera.
- Top Right: A group of residents and staff sitting on chairs in a room, holding signs that say "歡迎加入" (Welcome to join) and "一起健康 一起快樂" (Healthy together, happy together). A speech bubble above them reads "台東失智 二館據點" (Tainan Dementia, 2nd Branch Base).
- Middle Left: A group of five people standing together indoors. A date stamp at the bottom left of the photo reads "2023年11月22日".
